

INME SUMMER CAMPS PROGRAMS & SCHEDULE 2019

DISCOVER PROGRAMS

These programs are designed for first time campers (typically 9-11 year olds) to encourage them to step out of their comfort zone and explore the world of adventure and nature.

- Multi-activity program
- Campus Chief and a team of trained outdoor instructors run the program
- Extra supervision & care (including lady course leaders) to handle first timers
- A doctor with basic medical facilities is always present on the campus
- Accommodation in tents or dormitories, dining facilities, and fixed toilets and baths

EXPLORE PROGRAMS

These programs have a higher challenge level than the Discover programs.

- Choose 2 activities. Each activity runs over 3 days
- Groups of 15-18 are led by a team of 3-4 instructors
- Campus Chief with a team of trained outdoor instructors run the program
- A doctor with basic medical facilities is always present on the campus
- Accommodation in tents or dormitories, dining facilities, and fixed toilets and baths

CHALLENGE PROGRAMS

These programs are more adventurous and have a higher challenge level; participants may need to stretch themselves. The programs range from 6-23 days and some basic skills and fitness may be needed to enrol.

- Most programs are not on a fixed campus
- Participants are on the move, setting up camps as they progress
- Participants manage their own chores (cooking, cleaning, carrying and managing supplies etc.)
- No fixed toilets and baths
- Led by an Expedition Leader; it has trained wilderness first-aid responders
- Group may be out of communication on some days
